Location of Where Photos Can Be Taken:

There are no restrictions as to where the photographs are taken for the 5 nature categories. The History and Heritage category is limited to the United States, and the Paul Glascock Memorial People's Choice Award must be taken in a Loudoun County park.

Opening Tea: All entrants are cordially invited to the Opening Tea, hosted by the FCMP in the historic Lanesville Ordinary on Friday, September 21, 2018 at 7:00 PM. All awards (except the Paul Glascock Memorial People's Choice Award) will be announced during the Opening Tea at 7:30pm.

Standards (see Rules for more detail):

Quality: Please submit only your superior work, printed with extreme care, and matted according to the Expo rules.

Matting: All entries must be matted, no frames, no floating mats (extra white or paper visible around photo). See matting rules for dimensions and other details. No titles, signatures or watermarks may be visible.

* Hand of Man: "Hand of Man" is a photographic term used to describe human elements. This is anything man made or used to contain nature. Feeding dishes, cages, fences, wires, docks, boats, buildings, human hands themselves (when holding birds, etc.). For the five nature categories, "Hand of Man" is allowed if it is a minor and unobtrusive element. "Hand of Man" is allowed within the History & Heritage and Farm Life categories.

Entry: Entries are due no later than 5:00 PM on Friday, September 14, 2018. An entry fee of $10.00 per photograph for adult entrants, and $5.00 per photograph for youth.

Digital Version of Images: Submit a softcopy version of your entries along with your prints, either as email attachments sent to claudemoore@loudoun.gov or on a CD no later than September 14, 2018. This is a mandatory step in submitting your images.

Pick Up: All entries (with exception of Traveling Expo – detail will be given at the Tea) will be available for pick up at the Claude Moore Park Visitor Center on or after Monday, October 1, 2018.
